Allez, viens! is a comprehensive French program that offers an outstanding selection of resources designed to make both learning and teaching enjoyable and productive. By integrating functions, grammar, and vocabulary, and thoroughly practicing all four skills plus culture, Allez, viens! promotes development of language proficiency so that students can communicate effectively and express themselves with confidence.

Organized by such common subject categories as home, health, and work, a colorful, illustrated bilingual dictionary covers more than six thousand words and phrases.

French language text focuses on the language skills of reading, writing, listening, and speaking. Grammar and vocabulary are also stressed as a foundation.

When Miss Fox-Seton descended from the twopenny bus as it drew up, she gathered her trim tailor-made skirt about her with neatness and decorum, being well used to getting in and out of twopenny buses and to making her way across muddy London streets. A woman whose tailor-made suit must last two or three years soon learns how to protect it from splashes, and how to aid it to retain the freshness of its folds. During her trudging about this morning in the wet, Emily Fox-Seton had been very careful, and, in fact, was returning to Mortimer Street as unspotted as she had left it. She had been thinking a good deal about her dress--this particular faithful one which she had already worn through a twelvemonth. Skirts had made one of their appalling changes
