Chinese classic folktales are being rewritten with easy to understand language with poetic rhymes. These fantastical stories about ghosts, witches, and spirits are filled with imagination. This story is about a dream of a mandarin who fell asleep for almost a month. He dreamed that he became a fish, caught by a fisherman, and became the centerpiece of his court friend's dinning delight. Will he ever wake up from this nightmare?

Bringing fresh insight to the comprehensive HODGES' HARBACE HANDBOOK, Sixteenth Edition, rhetorician Cheryl Glenn and linguist Loretta Gray provide this market-leading handbook with groundbreaking treatment of writing.

"Small orange lamp" contains 12 essays and 4 short stories for upper elementary children by Bing Xin, China's foremost children's writer. In Simplified Chinese. Distributed by Tsai Fong Books, Inc.
