This is a good night bedtime game for fathers and children. It is also a complete book combining poop, piss and fart fighting equipments. It is also a book of laugh holding competition from turning the book to telling the story. From making the enemy laugh to deceiving the enemy to laugh, then to the strange attack, and finally to training not to laugh when provoked by the enemy, all the game scenes are simulated, and the imagination space and the right to choose are returned to the young readers. Children can make enemy laugh, hold back the laugh, and win the game according to their own brains; they can also laugh in the process, and although they lose the game, they save the world.
